

Port of Oakland Earth Day Shoreline Cleanup April 19, 2003

WHAT IS THIS?

The Port of Oakland is organizing its 3rd Annual Earth Day Shoreline Cleanup. On this day, gathering communities come together to celebrate and clean up the environment! Every year we collect approximately 3,000 pounds of trash along the Oakland Estuary!

WHEN IS IT?

The 3rd Annual Earth Day Shoreline Cleanup will be on Saturday, April 19, 2003 from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. Following the event, there will be a free luncheon for all participants.

WHERE DO WE MEET?

Please meet at the meadow in front of the Port of Oakland Building, located at Jack London Square by 9 a.m.

WHAT SHOULD I BRING?

Please bring sun protection gear and a smile! We will provide the trash bags and gloves.

ARE CHILDREN ALLOWED TO PARTICPATE?

YES!

WHO DO I CONTACT?

Please contact Colleen Liang at 510-627-1198 or cliang@portoakland.com to register. There are waiver forms that must be signed by all participants. Persons younger than 18 years old need their parent or legal guardian to sign the form.
