Thursday December 17, 2009
3 to 5 pm

Background

The Port of Oakland has land use authority over the Oakland Airport Business Park (ABP). The current Standards and Restrictions (S&Rs) for the ABP are available on the Port's web site (Doing Business with the Port) at www.portoakland.com/pdf/real_reso_01.pdf. The S&Rs were developed in 1988, have been amended five times, and need to be updated. The updated S&Rs, now referred to as the administrative draft Land Use and Development Code, will be available for review on the Airport's web site (What's New?) at <http://www.oaklandairport.com/index2.cfm>, on Thursday, December 10.
