

Small Business Exclusion

Some contracts under $1 million will be bid under the small business exclusion included in the Project Labor Agreement. Eligible small local contractors that have been certified by the Port will be asked to participate in an informal bidding process for this work. Work done under the small business exclusion is exempt from Project Labor Agreement requirements. All public works jobs must pay prevailing wages and should be bid accordingly.