

AGENDA

Port of Oakland Seaport Air Quality 2020 and Beyond Plan:
The Pathway to Zero Emissions
Wednesday, November 18, 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. (PST)
TASK FORCE MEETING

IMPORTANT:

To join this meeting, please register in advance, by clicking on this registration link:
Register Here for Seaport Air Quality Task Force

Meeting Objectives:

- To update the Task Force regarding Near-Term Action Plan (NTAP) activities to implement the Plan
- To obtain feedback and input from Task Force on the Near-Term Action Plan (NTAP) activities
- To share information regarding future activities and involvement of the Task Force

This meeting will be virtual via Zoom platform. Please join approximately 15 mins early to assure connection.
This meeting will be recorded for the Port of Oakland's files and use.

I. Meeting Start and Format Overview	Surlene G. Grant, Facilitator
II. Introduction and Acknowledgement of Key Staff	Envirocom Communications, Strategies, LLC
III. Welcome and Meeting Purpose	Danny Wan Executive Director, Port of Oakland
IV. Task Force Co-Chairpersons Welcome	Seaport Air Quality Taskforce Co-Chairpersons
V. Progress Update on Seaport AQ 2020 Near-Term Action Plan Strategies	Richard Sinkoff, Director, Port Environmental Programs and Planning (EP&P)
VI. Presentation/Feedback on Port Studies <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Performance Incentive Programs for Ocean-Going Vessels and Locomotives▪ Financial Aspects of the 2020 and Beyond Plan▪ Implementation of Rubber-tire Gantry Cranes and Off-dock Yard Tractors	Richard Sinkoff, Port of Oakland, EP&P Tracy Fidell, Port of Oakland, EP&P Julie Lam, Port of Oakland, Finance Tim Leong, Port of Oakland, Maritime
VII. Questions and Discussion
VIII. Topics of Interest/ General Update <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Tugs▪ Truck Parking▪ Infrastructure▪ Heavyweight Corridor Study▪ Other Project Updates	Bryan Brandes, Director, Port Maritime Division
IX. Questions and Discussion
X. Task Force 2021 Engagement	Amy Tharpe, Director of Social Responsibility Port of Oakland
XI. Summary and Close	Surlene Grant